E- GROUPS

FIRST IMPRESSIONS

Bus Drivers
Greeters
Ushers
Security

First Impressions ensure an organized and respectful atmosphere throughout the church as helping to guide those who attend our Weekly Experiences and special events. They are essential in welcoming people into the church and ensure a smooth flowing worship experience.

Bus Drivers are responsible for providing assistance to those who need transportation to and from our Weekly Experiences. Bus Drivers seek to make sure that our bus(es) are filled using evangelism tools to invite new people to our weekly Experiences.

Greeters are some of the “front line” partners at John 3:16 who interact directly with the families and guests that enter our campus on any given Sunday, Wednesday or special event day. Greeters serve as friendly, inviting faces as people attend our weekly Experiences.

Ushers are responsible for providing greetings and logistical support to the individuals who come through the front doors of John 3:16. This person should present a positive image to those who are looking to be accommodated during one of our weekly Experiences and other special events. Ushers are also responsible for distributing flyers, take-aways and other ministry tools before and/or after Experiences when direction is given.

Security are the safety patrol of John 3:16 Church assuring that our campuses are secure and safe for the John 3:16 family and friends during our weekly Experiences and special events, maintaining an orderly conduct of all who access the campus grounds. *Prior Security or Patrol experience is a plus but not required.

FOOD SERVICES

Cooks Servers

Food Services help provide a service as well as set an atmosphere of fellowship, efficiency, and welcome. Some of our church activities include eating together at breakfast, lunch, or dinner during meetings, workshops or at receptions following special events.

Cooks will be responsible to meet a standard of excellence in preparing meals and/or refreshments for all designated John 3:16 events.

Servers will aid the cooks in creating an excellent presentation of plated food making sure that everyone is served at designated John 3:16 events.

PRODUCTION TEAM

Audio & Media Technicians
Camera Crew
Radio & Television Broadcast Assistants
Visual Screen Technicians

Audio & Media Technicians ensure that The John 3:16 sound and video is captured at every Experience or program to the highest quality. *Prior experience leading audio in a live-sound environment is a plus but is not required.

Camera Crew operate our tripod mounted cameras in designated areas of The John 3:16 campuses. They are responsible for capturing images during the Experiences, special events and for other production activities. These images will be shown on the screens, TV Broadcasts or via Live Stream.

Radio & Television Broadcast Assistants assist in developing our Radio and Television programs which air on public networks nationwide. Assistants may also assist in planning, communicating with Radio & TV networks or responding to calls in response to our Broadcasts. Prior Experience is a plus but is not required. Training is available.

Visual Screen Techs will develop weekly presentations to help the congregation feel a part of the worship experience. A Presentation software is used to creatively display the lyrics to songs, announcements, and the sermon outline, etc. *Prior experience with programs such as PowerPoint is a plus, but is not required.

WORSHIP & ARTS

Choir is made up people who love singing praises unto God. They assist in leading our congregation in worship at our Weekly Experiences. There are mandatory scheduled rehearsals and workshops for training purposes.

Lead Worshippers express leadership, servanthood and love to God by leading the congregation in worship and complementing the weekly Experiences. Lead worshippers are skilled singers who don't mind stepping out in the forefront to lead our choir and congregation into the presence of our Almighty God. *Auditions are required.

LIFE GROUPS

Administrative Support

316 Orienteers (New Members & Partners Orientation) are responsible for providing new member's information and integration into our church as our members become partners. Orienteers are responsible for the church's assimilation process of taking people through the various levels of commitment to our church.

E-Producers are those who will serve to assist in making sure that all our members and volunteers have a satisfying experience during our weekly experiences. They will assist the Chief of Operations in coordinating a smooth flow or productivity for the various entities of our experiences. E-Champions will also follow up with members and guests who attend our weekly experiences for feedback and updates.

Office Support are volunteers who will assist the office staff in various task such as but not limited to: data processing, printing, copying, filing, inbound and outbound calling and much more.

Campus Volunteers

Volunteers who ensure that the campus is presentable to John 3:16 family and friends and provide a wide variety of skills to keep the church facilities in excellent appearance by providing hands-on cleaning and custodial duties. Volunteers will help prepare the facilities for various events, functions and our weekly Experiences. They also return the John 3:16 facilities to its weekly purposes. For example, folding tables, taking down canopies, signage and chairs and assure the items are stored correctly. The upkeep of our campus creates an important first impression for guests of our church and an excellent experience for those who regularly attend.

Evangelism Group

The Evangelism Group is made up of people who are passionate about winning souls to the Kingdom and developing disciples for our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. This group will attend various outings, events and other activities to share the gospel. Not only will they win souls but they will also assist in inviting skilled people into to the church for various assignments and ministry based needs.

Hands & Feet Group are the very hands and feet of the body of our church. They are the designees who will visit our partners and others who are hospitalized due to illness or childbirth, those connected to our church who may be incarcerated, homebound or in a nursing facility. This group will provide the restorative care of John 3:16 as well as evangelize to those outside of the four walls of our church inviting them to Experience the love we have found in Jesus Christ.

Project Love Missions And Outreach Group

A huge part of our vision is to clothe the naked, feed the hungry, supply shelter to the homeless and restore hope and happiness to those who are in need. The missions and outreach group is made up of partners who will respond to community, national and international based needs and crisis'. Those that are a part of this group must be passionate about serving, compassionate towards others and display the heart of Jesus Christ being the channel between heaven and earth in response to those who are less fortunate or in transition due to a crisis.

Youth Ministry

The next generation is a crucial asset to The John 3:16 Church. Partners involved with our youth display a passion for teaching, mentoring and leading our youth into a discipleship based relationship with Jesus Christ. It is our goal to foster the next generation of leaders and world changers. Through various events and activities, partners will show our children, teens and young adults how to live a life of worship, faith, prayer, servanthood, obedience and purpose.
